

GlobalHAB symposium on automated in situ observations of plankton
22-27 August 2022, Kristineberg Center, Fiskebäckskil, Sweden

Welcome and practical issues

Bengt Karlson and Peter Tiselius

Brief background of mini-symposium organisation

- 2017-2018 GlobalHAB Science Plan
  - Theme 9 Observation, Modelling, and Prediction
- 2018 Initiative by ICES Working Group on Harmful Algal Bloom Dynamics
- Organizing committee formed - virtual meetings
  - Bengt Karlson, SMHI, Sweden
  - Keith Davidson, SAMS, Oban, United Kingdom
  - Raphael Kudela, University of California, Santa Cruz, USA
  - Marina Montresor, Stazione Zoologica Anton Dohrn, Italy
  - Peter Tiselius, University of Gothenburg, Sweden
  - Lars Naustvoll, Institute of Marine Research, Norway
  - Elisa Berdalet, Institute of Marine Sciences (ICM-CSIC), Spain
- 2020-? Covid19
- 2020 Mini-symposium to be organised in June - postponed
- 2022 Mini-symposium in Sweden, 32 persons on site, ~60 on line

Agenda

- Session chairs will aid presenters in staying within time slots
- Friday open time slot > presentation by Alexandre Epinoux
- Afternoon session today, Monday
  - Three rooms > three stations > four groups? > more time at each stations
- Other changes?

Discussions

- Discussions are very welcome
- Questions and answers mainly after presentations
- Oral discussions will not be recorded
- We plan to set up Slack for on-line discussions

Publishing presentations on-line

- Zoom will be used to record presentations
- All presentations will be made from one computer (PowerPoint or pdf)
- Videos of the presentations are planned to be published on YouTube
- Links to videos will be found at <https://www.globalhab.info>
- Pdf's of presentations will be published at the same place, if you agree